Comments: Dear Arlene & Emil, Thank you for our wonderful stay. We had a wonderfully relaxing stay. We loved the food throughout the day! The forest walk was utterly fascinating and certainly has the beating of the Eden Project. We took a day trip to Kandy which went very smoothly, the botanical gardens were particularly worth seeing. Most of all I enjoyed the view from the verandah through the begonias and huge trees and of course the conversation. Thank you. Donald and Beverley

Despite flooding, washed out roads, and being “stuck” at home for a few days (or rather because of it!) I know that our stay will be by far the most memorable part of our trip. We both felt truly welcomed into your home, and are leaving with memories of delicious food (that we would have thought to have tried) and entertaining stories from Emil. We are so glad we were here for Christmas, as staying here was quite like visiting relations!

BEAUTIFUL! I loved ever minute and wanted to stay longer. The honeymoon has been such an experience so far and Hagalon has set the standard for our other accommodations in Sri Lanka. Emil & Arlene are so friendly and welcoming, its more than just a guest house, its like an extended family. The soaking pool was a hidden gem and we really enjoyed the walk around the grounds. The only very small criticism was that we are not used to such hard beds. Thank you for allowing us to stay at your wonderful place.

Firstly, it's a shame our stay was so short. Having travelled for a month through Vietnam and Cambodia, this stay has been the highlight of our trip. This was our first few days in Sri Lanka and we're worried the rest of the country can't match the love and care provided by Arlene, Emil and the staff. The food was brilliant and we could sit for days listening to Emil's stories – a temple of knowledge. Please ask them for any advice about travelling through the country. We not only recommend this place, you should make it an obligation to stay.

We will never forget you – it has made our trip to Sri Lanka an even greater experience. Thank you again. We wish you all the best. Take care.

Having followed the recommendation of a friend who, as Emil found out (had never stayed overnight himself!) we were so lucky to spend 2 nights at HPH. Not only because of the breathtaking jungle surrounding which Emil walked us through, revealing stunning views, not only because of the airy, relaxing, inspiring house with its welcoming atmosphere and unbelievable history also not only because of the spectacular cooking of your extremely nice staff. No. The main reason for this to be kept in memory as an absolute highlight of our SL trip, is the encounter with you, with your ideals, your wisdom, your open eardrums. Although we did not meet Arlene (get better soon!!), I am sure we felt her welcoming spirit around. But Emil hosted us wonderfully and we could have talked all night!

The train from Colombo to Kandy was spectacular, but Kandy itself was not much of a destination. However, our disappointment soon subsided as Naushad supplied us with both coconut water and navigated us through winding roads to the hidden oasis of Halgolla.

For two days we filled our belly's with daal, prawns curry, stewed aubergine and mango steen our newly discovered favourite fruit of the Gods. The days were filled with fantastic stories (the best being the lightening bolt through the house, Nata attacking a cobra, + local politics), exploration of the grounds, fireflies, reading on the porch and lazy days.

Thank you!

Thank you to Arlene & Emil for warm welcome. It's seldom a rare place to share lives and thoughts and living in a historic house. The place is great, very private. Arlene has given us her utmost attention. Emil's been in hospital and we hope he recovers swiftly.

Bogdan has most enjoyed Malika's kitchen and coconut grater. We all loved the food.

We have chosen to stay in Halgolla for 4 nights in the beginning of our trip and we fully enjoyed it. PEOPLE FOOD HUMAN SCALE. THANK YOU

We can't thank you enough for your kindness, helpful advice and the best food ever! Emil we hope you recover quickly from your operation. I couldn't get enough of your view out the front. We loved our walk to the soaking pool and had a quick dip. We learned a lot about fruit and spices and enjoyed our long chats with Emil and Arlene with all their stories and local knowledge. Maybe we can come again sometime, hopefully with Dad.

Dear Aunty and uncle, Thank you both so much for letting me stay in your hilltop paradise for a few days. The views I will keep in my mind forever. Your tea is the best I've ever had and the food was great. I am a very lucky person to have got to know you and your wonderful family which is worthy of a film or 2!!

Take care and with very best wishes from Rouna (Ranmal's friend)

All good things come to an end and sadly for us, our time at HPH has after only two days. HPH couldn't be further removed from the hustle and bustle of Singapore (where we come from) and got the feeling of home was unmistakable when we stepped in and greeted by Emil and his staff.

So we thank you very much for the warm welcome and the incredible stay we had your place, for all the knowledge and stories you shared with us and for helping us fall even more in love with Sri Lanka.
